Information on the presence of two Soviet bomber groups, totaling two hundred planes, was received only in press reports. However, the information may be correct, since air force shipments from the Soviet Union to SZEGED were repeatedly observed in August 1949, including:

21 August 1949: A shipment of 32 railroad cars, six loaded with fuselages and wings;

24 August 1949: Fourteen Soviet cars, marked "inflammable";

26 August 1949: Eight Soviet cars with fuel; it was not determined whether this was aviation gasoline;

12 August 1949: A fuel shipment.
